

Selling the home Homeowner responsibilities

- The homeowner must inform the board of his or her intent to sell the home.
- In most ROCs, the home is required to be marketed to low- to moderate-income homebuyers for the initial period of 30-60 days, depending on the bylaws. All other considerations being equal, income-qualifying buyers will take precedence during this period. After this time period passes, this restriction is removed.
- If the homeowner vacates the home during the sale process, he or she is still fully responsible for all upkeep and lot rent.
- All ROC requirements regarding “For Sale” signage must be adhered to. Check the community rules for clarification.
- The homeowner is responsible for continued maintenance of the lot and preparation for the change in ownership. The lot must be left neat and clean. Any failure may result in the ROC holding back part or the seller’s entire membership fee.
- The homeowner is the initial liaison between buyers/real estate agents and the membership committee.
- The homeowner/seller should request that a membership package be given to any prospective buyers and/or real estate agencies that list the home.
- The homeowner/seller is required to inform all prospective buyers of the requirement of membership acceptance, the process, the time frame involved, and any special conditions that may apply.
- Fuel storage tanks must be upgraded to meet state and federal installation standards BEFORE ownership changes. The financial responsibility for this must be decided between the seller and buyer.
- Pro-ration of lot rent must occur between the seller and buyer. No credit for any portion of lot rent will be given by the ROC to either party.
- The ROC DOES NOT involve itself with negotiations of the sale of the home, except as it may directly affect the ROC!

- Transfer of the membership fee as a part of the sale is not allowed. The homeowner/ seller must request reimbursement from the ROC and the buyer must pay their whole membership fee directly to the ROC.
- The sale transaction is not complete until the buyer's membership fee is paid in full to the ROC and verified, a new Occupancy Agreement is fully executed, and the transfer deed is signed by the ROC. Only then may the new homeowner take full possession of the dwelling and move in.
- Under no circumstance may the new owner move any property into the home or onto the lot until the sale is complete. This includes resolving any issues between the ROC and the previous homeowner.
